To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the good fortune to work with many competent community association managers over the last (20) years (during which time I have concentrated my law practice exclusively to the community association law field), and without a doubt, Paul Skirchak is one of the "best of the best" of those community association managers. The combination of Paul's extensive knowledge and personal experience from his years of management in the community association field allows Paul to offer sage advice on a wide variety of community association issues and, in my opinion, any community would be well served with Paul Skirchak at the helm!
